Egyptian BioGeometry: Key Methods to Activate, Broadcast, and Balance Energetic Fields with Dr. Robert Gilbert

Our guest speaker Dr. Gilbert was the first non-Egyptian ever granted instructor status in BioGeometry, and has taught this rare science for over 15 years. Join us for a fascinating journey from the knowledge of Ancient Egypt, China, and Europe to modern BioGeometry methods which optimize the energy fields which create and guide all life functions.

Topics include:

- * The Lost Energy Science used in Ancient Egypt, China, India, Europe and other great cultures.
- * The Communication Code used to Instruct and Direct Natural Forces in Egypt.
- * How Geometric Shapes manifest powerful subtle energy effects (and how ancient traditions used these "shape-caused waves").
- * BioGeometry methods to test and balance toxic sources in the home and office (Electro-Magnetic Fields, Geopathic Gridlines, toxic materials etc.) -- and how these methods differ from most other modern systems.
- * Balancing the Brain Hemispheres with specific Vibrational Qualities (and how this can potentially balance specific detrimental energies in homes, offices, and other locations).
- * The powerful effects of combining Geometric Shape with Natural Material vibrations.
- * How Directionality affects the strength or weakness of different energy systems in the human body (a crucial principle which is unknown to most healing systems).
- * Practical methods to directly detect and apply the full range of invisible vibrations which affect human life (secrets of the "Universal Vibrational Spectrum").
- * Latest Developments in Egyptian BioGeometry (from the 2019 BioGeometry Conference with founder Dr. Ibrahim Karim of Cairo).

This is Dr. Gilbert's only public presentation on BioGeometry for this entire year.
