Why I Test Mediums

with Mark Ireland

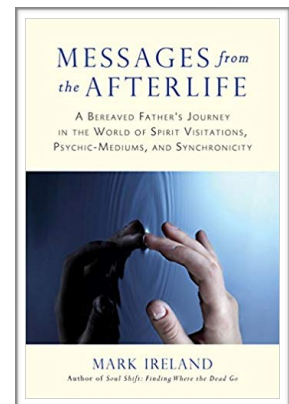

Evidential Mediumship readings can provide a therapeutic benefit to grieving people, but how does one find a credible resource?

For nearly six years, Mark Ireland has been testing Mediums under double-blind conditions. In this process, only Mediums capable of providing accurate information that is statistically significant and meaningful to the sitter have been certified.

During his talk, Mark will review the testing process, share some intriguing findings, and explain how you should approach participating in a reading as a sitter.

Mark Ireland is Co-Founder of Helping Parents Heal and the Author of two books, including the groundbreaking Soul Shift: Finding Where the Dead Go and Messages from the Afterlife. His father, Richard Ireland was a renowned 20th-century Psychic-Medium who counseled Mae West, Glenn Ford, Amanda Blake, and the Eisenhower family. Mark has participated in mediumship research studies conducted by the University of Arizona, and the University of Virginia, and he currently runs his own Certification program. Mark's objective with this work is to identify high-caliber Mediums who are capable of furnishing specific, accurate, and pertinent information. According to the Windbridge Research Center, evidential readings can provide a therapeutic benefit to grieving persons. www.markirelandauthor.com
